Rescue, rehabilitation and rehoming

HorseWorld Trust is a charity that rescues horses, ponies and donkeys that have been abandoned, mistreated or neglected.

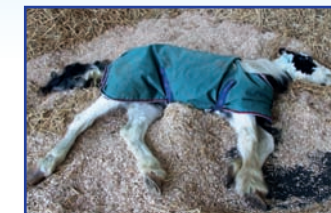

We are often the only lifeline for animals treated so cruelly they had given up hope. Each animal we rescue is nursed back to health and, wherever possible, rehomed to give it a second chance.

Buddy

HorseWorld rescued Buddy early in 2011 after taking a call from the RSPCA. He'd been found starving to death in a litter-covered field. He was so weak he couldn't stand. It was a miracle he survived.

We rescued him, and provided round-the-clock care. Poor Buddy needed to be manually lifted to his feet every two hours, day and night, to eat and drink. Gradually he grew stronger, and now Buddy is happy and healthy, with a bright future.

Visit us today to meet horses like Buddy, and to find out how and why horses like him are rescued. Discover how we nurse them back to health and how we guarantee them a safe and happy future.
